WESTBOROUGH HIGH SCHOOL

WESTBOROUGH, MASSACHUSETTS

THERE WAS A CHILD

Earl Thomas Joseph Baker

WENT FORTH EVERY DAY

AND THE FIRST OBJECT HE LOOK'D UPON

THAT OBJECT
HE BECAME

AND THAT OBJECT BECAME PART OF HIM

FOR THE DAY

OR A CERTAIN PART
OF THE DAY

OR FOR MANY YEARS

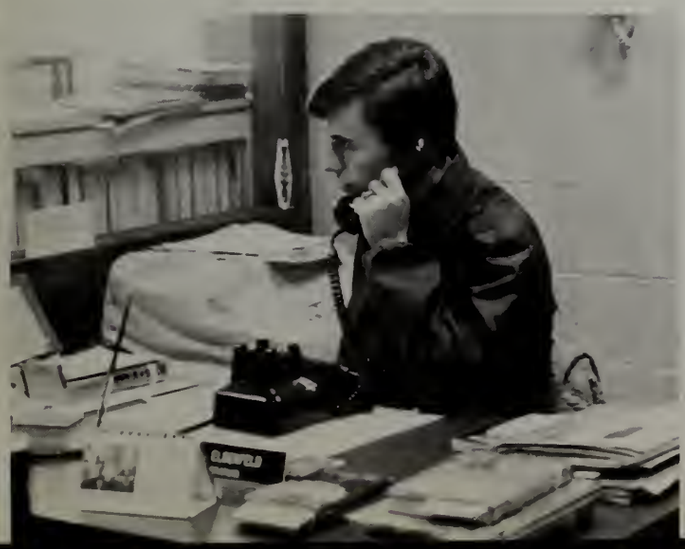
OR STRETCHING CYCLES
OF YEARS



The early lilacs become part of this child,
And grass and white and red morning-glories, and white and red clover, and the song of the phoebe-bird,
And the Third-month lambs and the sow's pink-faint litter, and the mare's foal and the cow's calf,
And the noisy brood of the barnyard or by the mire of the pond-side,
And the fish suspending themselves so curiously below there, and the beautiful curious liquid,
And the water-plants with their graceful flat heads, all became part of him.

The field-sprouts of Fourth-month and Fifth-month became part of him,
Winter-grain sprouts and those of the light-yellow corn, and the esculent roots of the garden,
And the apple-trees cover'd with blossoms and the fruit afterward, and wood-berries, and the commonest weeds by the road,
And the old drunkard staggering home from the outhouse of the tavern whence he had lately risen,
And the schoolmistress that pass'd on her way to the school,
And the friendly boys that pass'd, and the quarrelsome boys,
And the tidy and fresh-cheek'd girls, and the barefoot negro boy and girl,
And all the changes of city and country wherever he went.

His own parents, he that had father'd him and she that had conceiv'd him in her womb and birth'd him,
They gave this child more of themselves than that,
They gave him afterward every day, they became part of him.

The mother at home quietly placing the dishes on the supper-table,
The mother with mild words, clean her cap and gown, a wholesome odor falling off her person and clothes as she walks by,
The father, strong, self-sufficient, manly, mean, anger'd, unjust,
The blow, the quick loud word, the tight bargain, the crafty lure,
The family usages, the language, the company, the furniture, the yearning and swelling heart,
Affection that will not be gainsay'd, the sense of what is real, the thought is after all it should prove unreal,
The doubts of day-time and the doubts of night-time, the curious whether and how,
Whether that which appears so is so, or is it all flashes and specks?
Men and women crowding fast in the streets, if they are not flashes and specks what are they?
The streets themselves and the facades of houses, and goods in the windows,
Vehicles, teams, the heavy-plank'd wharves, the huge crossing at the ferries,
The village on the highland seen from afar at sunset, the river between,
Shadows, aureola and mist, the light falling on roofs and gables of white or brown two miles off,
The schooner near by sleepily dropping down the tide, the little boat slack-tow'd astern,
The hurrying tumbling waves, quick-broken crests, slapping.
The strata of color'd clouds, the long bar of maroon-tint away solitary by itself, the spread of purity it lies motionless in,
The horizon's edge, the flying sea-crow, the fragrance of salt marsh and shore mud,
These became part of that child who went forth every day, and who now goes, and will always go forth every day.

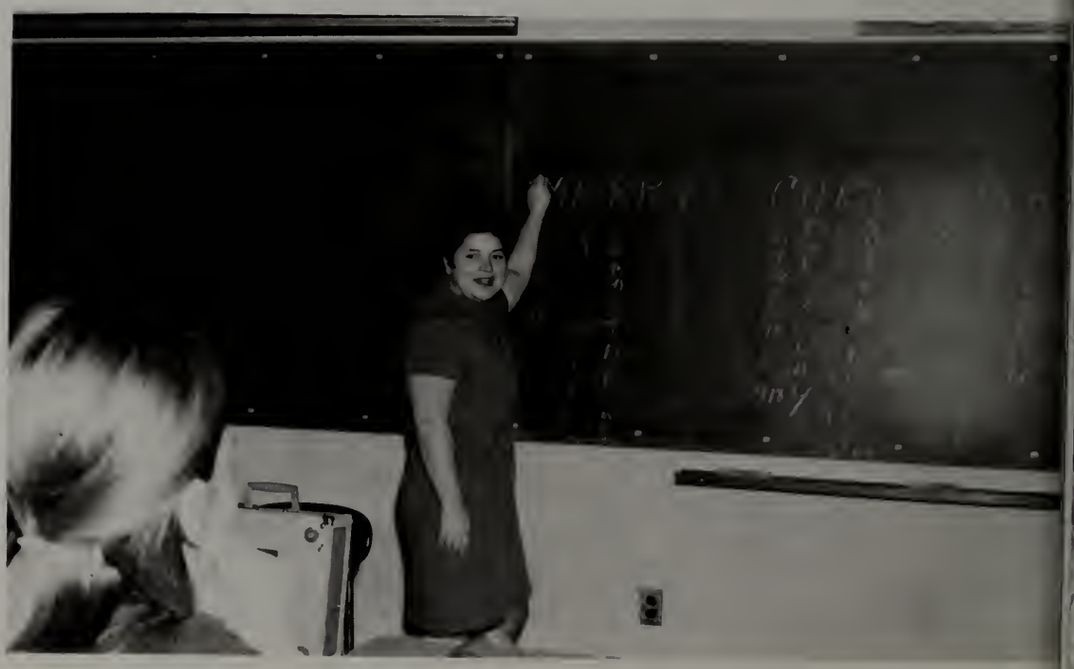
DEDICATION



AND THE SCHOOL MISTRESS THAT PASS'D
ON HER WAY TO THE SCHOOL,

WE DEDICATE . . .

For her many years of dedication and genuine interest in Westborough High School, we dedicate this yearbook to Miss Charlotte Spinney. Being a graduate of WHS herself, she has witnessed many changes at Westborough High. Aside from being a dedicated teacher (and always being accused of favoring seniors!), she has made a long-lasting impression on her students and the school. Miss Spinney has been best known for her dedication as the advisor of the WHS Student Council for many years. She has been a driving force in keeping Student Council an important aspect of WHS. She has also been active on the state and national level. Booster Week and School Spirit Week are two of her innovations. She has also been a "side line" coach for the football and basketball teams and has freely offered much friendly advice and criticism. For the teacher and person she is, and for her faith in us, we, the Class of 1971 dedicate this 1971 Cotton Gin to her in great appreciation.
